Please realize that her purpose here is entirely SELFISH.

This newsgroup, intended for information exchange, discussion and support about LYME DISEASE has been hijacked by this convicted psych patient for her own, selfish twisted agenda.

kathleen insists on making things worse for herself by continuing her harassment and insaneograms, attacking law enforcement, and the DCF, just more proof of her insanity after just being released from the mental hospital.

Re: Kathleen

Some Past Highlights, for you new Group members:

She showed up at the stonington ct schools and declared herself a terrorist with WMDs and threatened to bomb the school. She claimed it was a joke but even if it was it showed incredibly poor judgment.

The incident above followed a screaming yelling cursing fight with the female principal of that school.

She threatened to drown her kids by driving a car into a lake. She says this was a joke too, but those were her own words.

AFTER her kids were taken away she showed up at their "safe house" with a shopping bag full of drugs.

She also refused a psychiatric exam ordered by the court.

After her kids were taken away she didn't alter her course of conduct one bit but just kept at it. She didn't even seem upset. In fact she wrote that this allowed her more time for her "work" which consists of sending ranting raving insaneograms all over and committing fraud on Lyme people along with her coconspirator and legal strategist lisa masterson.

She goes on the run from the law and is caught and thrown into prison and then a state mental hospital.

Well we have seen that kathleen admits to being psychotic in her own words and admits that she has been psychotic for more than twenty years. !!!!!

This is the "lymefighter" that some here seem to follow and support. No wonder she is not allowed on lymenet or any other sane group
