As I expected.. the thread has been "moderated".

A pity Lisa attacked me so disgustingly on my take on 9/11 and veriaous other things.
She was being a typical chauvinist imperialist Yank.

Otherwise I would have moved heaven and Earth to try to get her out.

Curious here, Frank...

....(although I sense I will regret asking, as usual)...

....but, isn't failing to help her because of her political views sort of the moral equivalent of approving of her being (allegedly) locked up because of her political views?

Seems to me failing to take action because of her beliefs is pretty much the same as taking action because of her beliefs.

(One is much wimpier than the other, of course).

I think you should be a man of his words and convictions and a hero and bust her out. (Kathleen is a woman of HER convictions).
