

Re: Abuse report for vulgar language.

Re: Abuse report for vulgar language.

---

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.med.diseases.lyme/2006-10/msg00152.html>

---

- From: "the 3rd Man" <derdrittemann2003@xxxxxxxxx>
  - Date: 3 Oct 2006 19:20:35 -0700
-

the 3rd Man wrote:

Greatcod wrote:

Don't blame me--I was molested by a Catholic priest.

Yeah, and I'll bet you were a Congressional page, too. That's NO excuse for talking like g----mned f---ing Teamster. S--t.

Hey, did you happen to notice in those Steere articles that were posted at LymeNUT the other day, that there was a reference to the first case of Lyme being on Cape Cod in the sixties?

Ever hear anything about this?

Here's the quote...from a 2004 article by Steere:

"The earliest known American cases of Lyme disease occurred in Cape Cod in the 1960s".(S30 ).

What?

.