Why does she continue to cross-post outrageously off-topic GARBAGE on a Lyme disease forum? Every time she does this, she is weakening this forum and sending people away.

She's been TOLD over and over that it is off-topic and no one wants to hear her constant story about the collapse of the WTC...OVER AND OVER AND OVER.

She even refuses to mark it as "off-topic".

Apparently, she doesn't give a damn about the suffering of real people with Lyme disease...
