You couldn't connect the dots from A to B. Your health wasn't ever at risk except from your own psychoses and behavior.

Fraud? You have tried every way you can in your own head to discredit everyone you have ever met, and they have all blown you off. You supposed cause is a loser, and so are you.

What points are you trying to make? Besides the same old rambling, disjointed, self-centered, moronic garbage you spew "all over the known universe," as you are fond of saying. Since no is listening, has listened, or is likely to listen, I guess the universe has blown you off as well.

Look on the internet you loon. Plenty of people aren't afraid to say things about lyme. It just pisses you off royally that NO ONE on the planet listens to your ridiculous version of the non-truth. The only thing you are an example of, is how to waste your life on old 20, 30, 40, 50 year old information, that no one cares about.

You didn't lose your kids from speaking out. You lost your kids because of your mental state and the miserable conditions you forced them to endure:

You lost your job because of your mental illness and inability to even remember what you were working on Abigail. You were fired for it.

Retirement? You only had 6 years in. How much retirement do you think you deserve?

Home? You never had a home, you rented the dumps you lived in and now live in a relative's house.

Spouse? Don't make me laugh. You lost Donald because you are a loon and wouldn't let up or get help. You made him, and your kids, miserable. That's why you no longer have any contact with them. Not because of big pharma horseshit. Ain't it amazing that they are healthy now and doing well?

"Biggest medical scandal in the world?" hahaha How come no one knows this but you and your raving sockpuppets? I think what has actually been blown is the circuitry in your brain.

"Enemy combatant" You idiot. I do believe you have actually convinced yourself of the importance of your so-called life. Now that's hilarious.

The only person who is taking anything from you that you have worked for your whole life is YOU. Dolt

And if there truly is a person out there using your IP (and apparently your computer as well) must be one of those dissociative disease or multiple personalities in your head you talked about so much in those newsgroups.
