Okay this is obviously lisa the lunatic who might be one of the only people close to as insane as kathleen.

Uhhh...probably not.

Notice that she includes "mockingbird" among the "perps"

This is something that a wacko that popped-up here recently did. Carla Krutbitch or something like that...she called herself "Snappy" or "Snapcrackle" and insists that she is some sort of college professor.

Flakier than a bowl of breakfast cereal...snap, crackle...plop.

You're probably right thirdman. She he or it uses many of the same exact phrases as snapcrackle and these insane conspiracy theories are pretty distinctive. Yes there is a lunatic fringe in this country who subscribe to them but this is obviously her. I guess lisa is still incarcerated.

College professor?

I guess they offer college courses in insane asylums?
