Thanks, Sheila. It's happening on both my laptop and Charlie's PC though. I guess I'll have to contact Comcast when they're awake. I think the gremlins are at work in this house as our main phone line is down also. Fabulous (hah!) Verison can't get out to repair it until Wednesday!! Personally I don't care as I have my business line to use, but Charlie uses our house phone during the day as his business line, so til Wednesday he'll be tearing out whatever hair he has left!
