

Re: OT – This just in...

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.med.transcription/2004-09/2104.html>

From: Phyllis (phyllisnilsson_at_buckeye-express.com)

Date: 09/09/04

Date: Thu, 09 Sep 2004 06:48:50 -0400

You may be right. If President Bush tries to make us all go to his church or denomination, or if he arrests us for no doing so, then he would fit your description of a fanatic. However, signing into law something that someone does not like doesn't qualify (Christians have lived with that for years).

Barbara Carlson wrote:

- > Living your faith certainly does not warrant being called a fanatic, but
- > trying to make others live your faith, or taking action against those who do
- > not live your faith--that makes you a fanatic. I respect those who live
- > their faith, indeed admire them.
- >
- >
- >