

Re: My thoughts on the Terry Schiavo case

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.med.transcription/2005-03/1668.html>

From: LizzieB. (blahblah_at_blahblahblah.com)

Date: 03/22/05

Date: Tue, 22 Mar 2005 11:28:55 -0600

Jay Vance wrote:

> I have a real problem with the federal government getting involved in this > for a couple of reasons. First of all, it's just another example of > government intrusion into our lives, something conservatives should be > fighting against tooth and nail. Furthermore, it undermines the rule of > law, something else that is a bedrock principle of conservatism.

Well. I agree with the whole thing, but most especially the above snippet. It only opens the door to further imposition of gov't on personal freedoms.

I will add that it seems manipulative and selfish parents are driving this train, and that to discount the husband's wishes is the horrendous.

I would be horrified if my mother went to court to override whatever decisions my husband made for me.

--

LizzieB.