I definitely think that the powers that be at offshore should at least know what's being said on SMT and pay close attention to the opinions and thoughts of this subgroup of American MTs, myself included. If it were possible for them rise above and correct the perceived and oftentimes real ills of all offshore companies, they'll be doing themselves a huge favor – reputation and financial

Donna,

Was this your only interaction with Indians? Have you ever had any other personal or business interactions?

Janice
