You know, that's me. I'll rant and rave when I get slammed, griping I'll never get done, but like my hubby says, you love it. And I do. When I finally get a day off (I work seven days a week and evenings most times) I am lost, although this past week, I found my kitchen, my living room, and can see through my glass shower doors somewhat again. I had not had a full day off since June 19th and I complained and complained and then started asking for work from some people I sub for LOL.

Speaking of that, I have got to find something that will clean that marbled glass. I have tried bleach, scrubbing bubbles, fantastik, etc., and it cleans it, but not very good.
