A lot of it is, but a lot of it isn't. That's the problem with a lot of thinking by a lot of people. Many get in situations they DID NOT create and work their way out, albeit slow as I did, but we work out. Some we get into ourselves. Do you honestly think this administration has done anything worth a damn for this country but destroy it? I want your drugs if you do, because you are out of it. We are a bankrupt nation, soon to be a 3rd world nation and the largest debtor nation. We pillage and plunder sovereign countries because we can and we use lame excuses to do so. They are robbing the sick and elderly with their joke of a medicare program (designed to do just that). They are the most corrupt administration this nation has ever seen -- they make me miss Nixon -- at least with Nixon we had honest media and journalists!
