It's sensationalism, just because it involved Cheney. It was Whittington's fault for coming up behind and not announcing himself, just like the article says, buried down in paragraph 10 or whatever. Of course, I'm of the mindset that all hunters should be shot...

Didn't keep the Brady's from being mean and nasty about it:

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12 /U.S. Newswire/ -- James and Sarah Brady made comments today related to Vice President Cheney's reportedly accidental shooting yesterday in Texas.

"Now I understand why Dick Cheney keeps asking me to go hunting with him," said Jim Brady. "I had a friend once who accidentally shot pellets into his dog - and I thought he was an idiot."

"I've thought Cheney was scary for a long time," Sarah Brady said. "Now I know I was right to be nervous."
