

Re: seeking information

Source: <http://sci.tech--archive.net/Archive/sci.med.transcription/2006-10/msg00116.html>

- From: Phyllis Nilsson <phyllisnilsson@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx>
 - Date: Sat, 30 Sep 2006 23:55:31 -0400
-

It was in the The Blade Toledo's only daily newspaper, on Friday, September 29, 2006, Section A, page 3. I think you can just google the name and town of the newspaper and get it that way. Sorry I don't have a URL for it.

I hope you'll let us know what they work out. For many here this is a theoretical debate as they haven't been in the situation of your friend, but for your friend it is very real and very pressing, otherwise they wouldn't be seeking help.

With parents in their 80s it means their children might be in their late 50s or early 60s, and having to finance their own health issues and plan for their elderly years so this is not repeated for their children.

With the price of cigarettes, he'd probably be able to get his car fixed if he gave them up.

CatLoverSu wrote:

Is there a web site where I can access that article? I'd like to read the whole thing.

And, yes, I agree that the thread is going in a direction that I never intended, and I'm sorry for contributing to it. I just wanted help with finding resources.

But I will say this ... I feel that taking care of your elderly parents is, and should remain, a personal decision (just like abortion) and not become a legal obligation.

Others might disagree.

"Phyllis Nilsson" <phyllisnilsson@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx> wrote in message news:jK2dnV_ew4QmdoDYnZ2dnUVZ_uydnZ2d@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

When reading today's newspaper, I happened across an article entitled, "Care-giving crisis looms for the elderly" and it spoke to the issue your friend is embroiled in.

Re: seeking information