Me either. That mare is one in a billion!

I can't count the number of times I've watched her video. The part near the end where she's performing to Lady Marmalade just gives me goosebumps. She's so talented and you can tell she loves dancing to the music.

I don't know where it was documented, but the gal on our horse boards that linked this said she found out the guy sold her – for 8 million dollars. <gulp>

I'm so weak-minded I wouldn't sell that horse for three times that. LOL. That's why I'm PORE. :D
