Now I know why you're the queen. You're so right! I don't need either having a built in -- maybe that's what pissed them off. Thanks Queen for setting me straight!

That is what I am thinking. It must be a slow day when dissecting your posts is the most important thing.

Janice, sounds like I'm giving you a run for the Queen title with that of power, maybe I should be considered the Queen pissant not just a pissy little pissant. When I speak I am authoritarian to the little people!!!!

But when others state something it isn't. My God how scary! I better not speak for fear people will crumble, countries will fall and minds will

and, and God knows what will happen.....

Well don't let it go to your head because you ain't going to be Queen any time soon. First you would need to learn how to get yourself out of a difficult situation with more finesse than you are currently showing.

In this particular case, instead of explaining yourself, tell them, if you want to fight with me, sorry but I am busy, or say you are sorry that they put such value on your unsubstantiated claims. Or say you were sorry that since you don't think that you will be needing a Dyson or Hoover or any other vacuum in the foreseeable future, people should feel free to skip your comment.

I guess I am going to have to spend the rest of the day coming up with questions to liven SMT up so that some of us have better things to post on.
