Most of you know my son drives a sprint car. He's a local racer for the most part, but this year they are touring with ASCS Speed Week. This is the big guys, kinda (Not World of Outlaws, but still big).

He won his first-ever ASCS race! It was a heat race. That's the woo-hoo.

The boo-hoo: His front wing didn't meet tech and he was DQ'd. :(Poor baby.
