IMO, a troll is someone who DOES hide their identity but are around for the sole purpose of stirring up trouble.

Someone who does the same but does NOT hide their identity is just an annoying pain in the neck. :-)

Well just to be accurate here, Floyd was not really a troll. He wanted to make sure that I DIDN'T post inaccurate information about salmon. He also didn't hide his identity.

Well, IMO a troll can be someone who does or does not hide their identity but are around for the sole purpose of stirring up trouble.
