

Re: Albums I could listen to more than 62 times

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.med.transcription/2007-07/msg01120.html>

- From: RaeMorrill <RaeMorrill.2uilnn@xxxxxxxxxx>
 - Date: Sun, 29 Jul 2007 22:44:53 -0400
-

mountain Wrote:

Eva Cassidy

.... voice like an angel. Unfortunately, she died of cancer at a very young age, but was very brave til the very end.

What did she sing? I recall once hearing a most beautiful version of Over the Rainbow by someone who died, perhaps before it was even released. Never could remember her name. That isn't her is it.

I think I'd have to say one of my favorites has to be Carole King's Tapestry. I have or had it on LP, cassette, and CD.

—
RaeMorrill