Do you really believe you are the only person on this board who had (or still has) black friends. It isn't a moral high ground you are standing upon, it is your holier-than-thou attitude combined with a "poor little victims" mentality.

Frankly, I think your attitude is more insulting to black folks than someone telling them to give up their anger and live a good life.

I remember when I a kid, heading over the hill to see my black friends who lived in the middle of a field. the white kids could see me heading over there, and they used to yell "nigger lover!" after me. these are the same people who are now telling black people to "get over it." Moral high ground? You betcha!
