Special Forces to Deploy to Afghanistan

A Special Forces Task Group made up of approximately 150 personnel will deploy to Afghanistan for up to one year as part of Australia's increased commitment to the fight against terrorism.

The Prime Minister made the announcement today following a decision of the National Security Committee of Cabinet.

Defence Minister Robert Hill said the highly trained soldiers will be employed in a variety of roles similar to those performed during 2001 and will work closely with our Coalition partners.

"It is intended that the Special Forces Task Group will deploy into Afghanistan for up to one year in about eight weeks time," Senator Hill said.
