Dear friends,

We the business empire having diverse business interest from india. We are exploring the options of infusing our excess cash flow into the products related to nano-technology. We would like to invest in the area of nano-technology. Parties, institutions and individuals, having significant technological capacities can revert back to us with projects.

Presently I am having business interest in textiles and information technology.

Best regards,

Jay Shah,
Manager
New businesses
Midas Industries
India.
