LIAR. You're just too lazy to read my website and published papers. You figure if you insult me you can con me into givi8ng you a spoon fed personal tutorial.... WRONG MORON, you're not worth the effort. You can read my website, or go back to playing golf.

sci.physics.relativity: Re: A Letter to George Hammond, and all Christians for that matter.

You're questions are answered on my website, and I've answered them here as many times as I'm going to. Look for a spoonfed tutorial elsewhere... I'm not running a kindergarten.

[Hammond]

You're a moron. "Men generate reality" is CORRECT, because if all Men died tomorrow, there would be no reality.

[Hammond]

No... you're attempting to dodgfe the issue by simply saying the proof doesn't exist when in fact it is plainly posted on my website, has been published in the peer reviewed literture, and is self evident to any qualified scientist.

<snip... repitious tautology by a heckle-bot>
