

Re: Relativity Cult Limerick

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.physics.relativity/2004-10/0241.html>

From: eleaticus (eleaticus_at_bellsouth.net)

Date: 09/30/04

Date: Thu, 30 Sep 2004 16:39:16 -0500

<http://members.fortunecity.com/pew/eleaticus.html>

"sadieaces" <sadieaces@bellsouth.net> wrote in message
news:RKH6d.70591$as2.31780@bignews3.bellsouth.net...

>

> "Martin Hogbin" <goatNOSPAM1@hogbin.org> wrote in message > news:cjf9qq$18a$1@hercules.btinternet.com...

>>

>> "eleaticus" <eleaticus@bellsouth.net> wrote in message

> news:9zC6d.67431$as2.25072@bignews3.bellsouth.net...

>>> A cult Relativitist, F. Ungus,

>>> Was called by straight thinkers, D. Ungous.

>>> And his bowels all said

>>> Regarding his head,

>>> We're full 'cause the damn thing's among us!

>>

>> Stick to physics, your poetry is even worse.

>

> My first post anywhere!

>

> Elasticus has posted limericks elsewhere. The one above was adopted from the > last three:

>

>> A devoted old Bushie, F. Ungus,

>> Was called by the townsmen, D. Ungous,

>> And his bowels all said,

>> Regarding his head,

>> We're full 'cause the damn thing's among us.

>>

>> -----
>> Give 'clerk' the English twist:

>>

>> The Bureau's the best place to clerk in

>> For folks who like to go sharkin'.

>> The records there show

>> The places to go:

>> Haliburton and ENRON and Harken.

>

sci.physics.relativity: Re: Relativity Cult Limerick

> > Questions 'bout Iraq make Dumbya feel harassed,
> > But the slime that he is, not embarrassed.
> > Iraqi children, he said,
> > Are better off dead.
> > Brit intel and ours say they're terr'ists.
>
> And somewhere on the Internet there are two he wrote supposedly fifty years > ago. Naughty ones.
>
> Sadie Sanger
>
> > Martin Hogbin
>
>