I am sorry, Bilge. You have gotten confused as to who was saying what. TC (this is the person at the top of this post) said that Dirac theory was based upon SR. I did not say this. And I have no intentions of saying this. This is TC's comment, and if you want to know how SR supports Dirac's theory, ask him anything you want.

Oh! Oh! Bilge is saying here, right here on this net, right here in the year 2005, that LET is not mathematically equivalent to SR. This is very interesting, since this equivalency has now been said to be true by some very large number of people. Are you saying, Bilge, that Tom Roberts is also a loudmouth crackpot? Are you saying that Dr. George J. Marklin (website at: <<http://perso.wanadoo.fr/mluttgens/marklin1.htm>>) is a loudmouth crackpot? What are you saying, Bilge? Let us hear you say this again! I like to see these things occur. Please say it again!

Thanks for reading.
