Once I woke up, I realized that there still are guys convinced Special Relativity and General Relativity theories are the Revealed Truth.

It's just a theory in physics. No more, no less. Get over it.

SR and GR are merely conjectures.

** Despite the twin's paradox proves the Lorentz transform wrong and thus SR as well where SR is merely another interpretation to the Lorentz transform, you still continue to *believe in* SR.

** Despite the manmade mathematical foundation of GR, you continue to *believe in* in the divinity of GR.

SR and GR represent a unified religion to you. No more, no less. Now, get over with it. <shrug>
