

invariance of negative signature of the metric?

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.physics.relativity/2008-03/msg00811.html>

- From: iuval <clejan@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx>
 - Date: Fri, 7 Mar 2008 07:02:13 -0800 (PST)
-

Is there a theorem saying that if the metric starts out with a negative signature on a spacelike surface (one or three eigenvalues negative) that the field equations will preserve this negative signature for all future and past?

What if there were 5 dimensions?

-Iuval

.