

Re: Albert Einstein Jr.?

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.physics/2004-08/4304.html>

From: xxein (xxein_at_bellsouth.net)

Date: 08/15/04

Date: 14 Aug 2004 18:36:59 -0700

"George Hammond" <research137@hotmail.com> wrote in message news:<5SoTc.121404$8_6.74475@attbi_s04>:...

> "George Hammond" <research137@hotmail.com> wrote in message > news:ipcTc.283115$JR4.20497@attbi_s54...

>>

>> "George Hammond" <proof-of-god@comcast.net> wrote in message >> news:A6%Sc.115152$8_6.39249@attbi_s04...

>>

>> [Hammond]

>> PS: I just received this information from a faculty member at the Woods

> Hole

> Oceanographic Institute in Woods Hole MA:

>>

>>> Hans Einstein is buried at the graveyard next to the Church of >>> Messiah in Woods Hole. Head down Woods Hole Road >>> and as you approach the village, look for Nobska road on >>> your left, then Harbor Hill Road on your right. The next >>> street on your left will be Church Street. Take in, go over >>> the bridge and the church and graveyard will be immediately >>> on your left. There is a small parking lot that abuts the cemetery.

>>> I don't know where Einstein's plot is, but it's not a very large >>> area.

>>> Good luck.

>

> [Hammond]

> Pursuant to the above advice, I drove to Woods Hole at sun up this > morning...

> its only about 20 minutes away from my home town.

> Being a lifelong resident of Cape Cod I know every town and road in it > like the back > of my hand. I didn't have any trouble finding the Church of the Messiah or > the > cemetery.

> The Church and the cemetery are at least 200 years old... a typical old

> New

> England design built of huge rough hewn blocks of brownstone and granite.

> The cemetery is full and I think Hans Albert Einstein may have been one of

- > the
- > last people buried there... probably an exception because of his name. It
- > is a small
- > cemetery with about 300 headstones.
- > Most of the occupants are old Cape Cod names like Eldridge, Hallet, Hall,
- > Crowell,
- > etc. descendants of the Mayflower landing in 1620. There is a small but
- > noticeable
- > sprinkling of Jewish names, and a number of tombstones have the word
- > "scientist" or "biologist" on them... probably faculty members at the Woods
- > Hole Oceanographic
- > Institute. In fact it's an accident the Albert Einstein Jr. is even buried
- > here... he was
- > giving a lecture series at the WHOI when he had a heart attack at a
- > restaurant and
- > was rushed to the hospital but didn't recover. This was in 1973 and he was
- > 70.
- > I finally located the tombstone, covered by a large overgrown hedge. Its
- > way
- > down in back in a recent extension to the ancient cemetery, right near the
- > single road running through the place.
- > Through a hole in the hedge, which was covered by a large spider web I
- > had to clear away,
- > and after breaking off some of the overgrown shrubbery... there it was,
- > Hans Albert Einstein's tombstone. It has a famous epitaph on it, which is
- > quoted
- > in many biographical books and reads "A life dedicated to students, music
- > and nature"
- > or something to that effect. Its a beige colored stone.. maybe marble or
- > limestone
- > or something.
- > It was 7 am and no one was there. I looked around reading all the old
- > familiar
- > Cape names.... names of nobodies.. nobody of importance beyond Cape Cod
- > anyway..
- > and then I looked back at Einstein's headstone. I thought of Moses, Exodus,
- > Jesus, the Roman destruction of Israel... the Holocaust, Einstein's
- > discovery
- > of Relativity... and now the fact that Relativity has been discovered to be
- > a mathematical
- > explanation and proof of God... and I looked down at Albet Einstein's son's
- > tombstone... and suddenly a very eerie feeling came over me... what was he
- > doing
- > here? Why did this international historic 3,500 year old mighty quest for
- > God come
- > to rest in a Cape Cod cemetery 20 miles from my house? Why wasn't Hans
- > Albert
- > Einstein in Berne, Zurich, Princeton, Berkeley or somewhere he was connected
- > with,
- > or in the family cemetery in Berne with his grandmother and grandfather?
- > Why Woods

> Hole Cape Cod??
> Its said that Hans Einstein became "enamoured of Woods Hole" in the short > time he > spent here, and because of that his family decided to bury him here. My > take on that > is that he must have discovered, like I have discovered, that YES, Cape Cod > is actually > a "holy place". God may very well be on Cape Cod. Jack Kennedy was from > here, > in fact lived not 5 miles from me. The people who inhabit the Cape are, in > my > opinion, "peculiarly normal" personality wise and socially... noticably so.
> And, it > turns out the scientific proof of God has been discovered here (Hammond > 2003).
> I have a funny feeling that Hans Einstein noticed something about Cape Cod > that > went beyond the scenery and the architecture.... he noticed the PEOPLE!! My > guess is that his sixth sense told him that this was going to be the place > where > the TRUE MEANING of his fathers great discovery was going to be realized.
> In short..... he was looking for me. Well, this morning at 7 am, August > 14th 2004,
> he finally found me. A greeting from Albert Einstein to George Hammond, > from his > son Hans.
>
> =====
> SCIENTIFIC PROOF OF GOD WEBSITE
> 1st mirror site:
> http://geocities.com/scientific_proof_of_god
> 2nd mirror site:
> <http://proof-of-god.freewebsitehosting.com>
> new site (under construction):
> <http://home.comcast.net/~proof-of-god>
> =====

xxein: So? Don't keep us guessing. What did he say?