It appears to me to be the truth that DU bombs were used and has harmed not only US troops but innocent civilians in Iraq and the other Arab countries. The UN Secretary General even made a statement that the War in Iraq was an ILLEGAL WAR.

And another thing, even if DU Bombs or Dirty Bombs were used in Iraq, the US soldiers such have been informed about this and they should have been given proper equipment and radiation protection suits while there, and even now to prevent them from being exposed to high levels of radiation. DU (Depleted Uranium) is so radioactive and hot, it melts it way into enemy armor. It has long term harmful human health effects such as cancer.

As far as I know, DU Bombs are illegal bombs. And I wonder about those small mushroom cloud explosions I observed during the Iraq War, on TV news, to remove Saddam Hussein. I suspect these might have been small sized nuclear bombs. As far as I know, in order to make a smaller Nuclear Bomb you use lesser amount of Uranium or Plutonium with higher impact explosion and get the same effect of the small mushroom clouds observed when the bombs were dropped.

And another thing, not only did the war in Iraq start illegally (the UN was still inspecting Iraq for WMD), but DU bombs are chemical/nuclear weapons which are also illegal. Sure maybe conventional warfare is legal but this doesn't look conventional. And I always thought, Congress had to determine if war is to be declared. Congress never voted either, to go to war with Iraq.

What I suspect the reasons were to go to war with Iraq was for the oil (you can even observe the Iraq people blowing up their own oil wells on the news regularly to prevent the US from using it) and the suspicion of WMD (Weapons of Mass Destruction) use by Iraq. Sure maybe there was a possible threat to the US by Iraq with WMD, but there are proper procedures to go through before starting a war and the US shouldn't be using WMD to fight WMD. As far as I know a DU bomb is a WMD. How many civilians (innocent bystanders, men, women and children) in Iraq have died from Dirty Bombs? Could it be in the 100's of thousands or millions? They don't say.

When Bin Laden declared war on the US (there is a document showing Bin Laden's Declaration of War on the Internet), he said, 600,000 children died because of the US, the US was invading the holy places, and they wanted to use him, to not only remove Russians from Afganistan during the Afgan War, but to also obtain Arab oil illegally. So basically evidence shows Bin Laden originally worked for the US and was trained by the CIA and then turned against the US. Right before war was declared by Bin Laden against the US, the US was planing an invasion, then the next thing we observe on the News is the World Trade Center being blown up during the time the NSA computers were shut down. Who shut the NSA computers down to allow time for airliners to be used as Bombs against the World Trade Center and Pentagon? I suspect there is another government running this US government. Because everytime this "other" government needs to get away with something, they claim National Security, BUT it is against US National Security to tell Congress, The President, and the Judicial Branch of government to shut up, in my opinion.

You can even review the JFK assassination. There were reports that he was going to TALK about illegal activity in the CIA and the "other" government, and we can see what happens when a Kennedy runs for president. In fact, look at the head injuries of JFK just recently released by the FOIA. The gun shot wound shows that the back of his head was shot out. How could Oswald have done this if he was shooting from behind him facing the back of his head? All witnesses that observed what really happened either died "accidentally" or became missing. Then a few years after they buried JFK, they dig him up and dump him into the ocean. Why? Maybe it was to prevent or conceal evidence of the head wound.

So what should be done? We need to go back to the original US and the original US Constitution where, there was a Congress, President and Judicial Branch of government running the country, not this "other" government. It appears now to me someone else or some other government hidden in the US is running the country and determining who will live and who will die, without even a DUE PROCESS of law.

I am against this type of activity. And so was JFK. Will I be next to accidentally die? I hope not because I am not even speaking, the News Media and the American People are beginning to speak out. This "other" government can't get rid of ALL AMERICANS. I am only an observer. And this observer can see that millions are starting to talk on the Internet and in the US and abroad in other countries, INCLUDING the United Nations.

The United Nations has the power to investigate this in a World Court if our own Congress and Judicial Branch can't do so.

So I don't see any lies in the post. It looks correct based on the additional evidence shown on the other LINKS showing about the same thing as posted by Dr. Jai Maharaj.
