Thank you! Your decency and kindness are matched only by your intelligence, and your wit, Zero equals zero, in other words.

The sum of what I know about a male bovine's anus is that it produces the same thing your mouth does, bullshit. As for what other farm animals I like, that would be all of them, as long as they're properly cooked and served with the appropriate side dishes.

And ghosts, being nonexistent, are not a part of reality, therefore they cannot properly perceive reality, but we can see right through you.
