Bullshit meter quivers while still sealed in its packing case.

Empirical idiot. Your inability to perform self-consistent math, your abysmal ignorance of physics, and your psychotic ineducability have already been punctiliously exposed at length ad nauseam. You made an utter fool of your boorish self first with a second-rate professional journal and then perseveratively in public. Fucking imbecile. Your ignorance, incompetence, and psychosis are not of interest to the world at large. Quite the contrary – you are not even an entertaining laughingstock.

[snip further crap]

Special Relativity is a self-consistent hyperbolic geometry, idiot.

It contains no internal errors or paradoxes, idiot. You cannot falsify General Relativity without falsifying mathematics, idiot. It ain't gonna happen, idiot. The only (arithmetic) mistake in the original publication of
