The Stargate Conspiracy

What any kind of fundamentalism does quite deliberately and explicitly is create divisions in society: Them and Us, the Light and the Dark, the Righteous and the Wicked, the Nazis and the Jews, the Israelis and the Palestinians ...

Re: A League Of Oxygen–Breathing PsychoCeramicists Of Their Very Own Crrrracking!!

There is no room for rationality, intellectual questioning, challenge to the status quo, progress. More significantly, fundamentalists are easy to control — and their leaders have absolute power.

Control of the masses is ultimately what this is about. The idea that powerful and incredibly advanced beings will come to snatch us from the brink of disaster and make the world a better place for the future is, of course, enormously attractive. It sounds too good to be true.

It may give us comfort and hope — but it comes at a price. Belief in the space gods and the heightened expectancy of their benign intervention undermines our collective self–esteem. It implies that the human race was given civilization because it was too feeble to civilise itself, and that it has needed subtle guidance from the extraterrestrials throughout history.

Now that humankind has really made a thorough mess of things, its only hope of salvation is to await the return of the gods to rectify the situation.

The image it promotes of mankind is essentially negative. It is basically the same message that made Christianity such a success as a state–sanctioned religion, taking away the autonomy of the individual and halting intellectual, scientific and cultural progress for centuries. The Christian message maintained that we were all born sinners and live only by God's grace; our only hope is the promise of post–mortem bliss, provided that we surrender to the dictates of the priesthood.

The end result is a population of willing victims, brainwashed into believing they are little better than worms, at the mercy of God or space beings, without means of salvation except through them — or, of course, their human agents.

The members of the tragic cult Heaven's Gate, who happily took poison, represent an extreme form of this mode of thought: life as a mere human on Earth is worth nothing compared to escape in a spaceship, even if you have to commit suicide to reach it.

The enormous potential of space gods or UFO cults should not be underestimated. As the ever–perceptive Jacques Vallee writes in his 'Messengers of Deception' (1979):

"The group of people who will first manage to harness the fear of cosmic forces and the emotions surrounding UFO contact to a political purpose will be able to exert incredible spiritual blackmail."

Others besides Vallee have realized this. Clearly, although there is no way of knowing all the details, the conspirators are creating the perfect conditions for something to happen to effectively give them control over the masses — over us.

As we have seen, this could amount to the return of the ancient gods, or — much more likely — merely empty promises and cynically manufactured expectations.

The potential for population control is disturbing enough ordinarily, but taken together with the hysteria of endtimes expectation surrounding the Millennium, a truly explosive future is, we fear, guaranteed. Again Jacques Vallee gets to the heart of the matter. In 'Revelations' (1992), he writes"

"As we reach the Millennium, the belief in the imminent arrival of extraterrestrials in our midst is a fantasy that is as powerful as any drug, as revolutionary as any delusion that marked the last millennium, as poisonous as any of the great irrational upheavals in history."

Vallee goes on to compare this belief with the ideology of the master race that drove the Nazis to commit their worst atrocities. And in 'Messengers of Deception' he lists six "social consequences" of the hold of the UFO cults. These include:

"The contactee propaganda undermines the image of human beings as masters of their own destiny" and "Contactee philosophies often include belief in higher races and in totalitarian systems that would eliminate democracy."

Once before, a similar millennial mood was successfully harnessed in a way that changed the world: two thousand years ago, in a backwater of the Roman Empire, one man tapped into the prevailing hysterical messianic expectation and the result was Christianity. Theology and personal belief apart, the effect of this was to create generations of happy slaves who believed they came into the world as sinners and required the Church to order every detail of their lives. From that point of view at least, Christianity has been a huge success. But now it is losing its grip, something new, but similar, is required.

Could the early years of the twenty–first century see the emergence of a new Jesus or a new Moses [or a new Mahdi] to make sense of our puny, worthless lives and hand down from above a new set of commandments? Will the prophesied 'return of the Great Initiate' become a reality, thanks to some carefully contrived stage management? This new leader or Messiah figure will be backed by a massive politico–religious movement — a New World Order of zealots — the infrastructure of which is already in place.

Quote from Robert Morningsky:

"It is our position that somewhere on our planet, there are women who are descended of the blood of the Queens of Orion. They are the Daughters of the Star Beings of Heaven. For the last few thousand years, their existence has been manipulated, suppressed and denied.

In our book, 'The World's Oldest Religion', we have proposed that the so-called 'Secret of the Templars' was that they were protecting, not the descendants of Jesus, but rather, the descendants of Mary! The mysterious Merovingians, the likely powers behind the thrones in Europe, are descendants of the Divine Female Mary."

The Stargate Conspiracy – Introduction
by Lynn Picknett and Clive Prince

Revealing the truth behind extraterrestrial contact, military intelligence and the mysteries of Ancient Egypt

The Stargate Conspiracy exposes the most insidious, disturbing – and successful – mass manipulation of our times. Designed to bring us, hearts, minds and souls under the total control of the conspirators, this sinister programme has ruthlessly exploited our Millennial craving for signs and wonders – even hijacking the predicted return of the ancient gods.

The Conspiracy...

Its central focus is the belief that the gods of the ancient world were extraterrestrials who created and civilised the human race, that they're back – and that, communicating through special chosen ones, they are actively directing the way we think.

However, The Stargate Conspiracy reveals that this romantic and exciting scenario was in fact the brainchild of the West's most powerful intellectual agencies. Designed to become a new religion for the 21st century, its real purpose is political – to make us easier to control.

Centred on the search for lost secrets of the pyramid builders, this extraordinary true story reveals the links between US scientific intelligence agencies, Mars and ancient Egypt. For almost 50 years, like Frankenstein's monster, this conspiracy has been put together from cultish – but astonishingly powerful – belief systems, culminating in the emergence of a new fundamentalism that is gathering strength by feeding on Millennium fever.

Lynn Picknett and Clive Prince reveal the secret agenda that unites apparently independent authors and researchers – including top names with millions of readers worldwide – and which is targeted to all of us. The Stargate Conspiracy reveals that even the genuine mysteries of the gods themselves have been hijacked by powerful cabals – which include top industrialists, politicians, scientists and intelligence agencies such as MI5 and the CIA – in order to fulfill their secret agenda. At the heart of this conspiracy is the belief that the ancient Egyptian gods were – and are – extra terrestrial beings, that certain key people are in contact with them, and that they are about to return through the 'stargate' between our world and theirs.

Are we prepared for the imminent return of the gods? And will we be expected unquestioningly to accept the conspirators as our spokesmen? Or is this an exercise in mass manipulation designed to make us support the conspirators? As they calculatedly whip up Millennium fever, triumphantly persuading us that they alone know how to talk to the gods, this book serves as a serious warning to mankind.

The Main Points:

Over the last few years, the public has come to accept specific ideas about the 'message' of ancient Egypt, largely due to the works of certain high–profile authors. But we demonstrate that many of the principles of this 'New Egyptology' are not only based on false–premises, but have also been used by others as part of a secret long–term agenda.

We reveal the shadowy presence of US government agencies behind the current interest in the Giza plateau.

An essential part of this plot is the alleged link between ancient Egypt and a lost civilisation on Mars, based on the discovery of supposedly artificial features on that planet. We show that this view is seriously flawed, and that the intelligence agencies are actively encouraging the promotion of a meaningful Egypt–Mars connection.

We show that key people in the promotion of the 'message' of Egypt and Mars are involved in a cultish cabal who believes they are in direct contact with extraterrestrial intelligences from Sirius who claim to be sci.physics: Re: A League Of Oxygen–Breathing PsychoCeramicists Of Their Very Own Crrrracking!!

the gods of ancient Egypt. This group, which has existed for almost fifty years, has included many famous names, multimillionaires and cutting–edge scientists. It has also, disturbingly, had a profound influence on the decision–making of certain world leaders...

The Stargate Conspiracy reveals that this group was in fact cynically and deliberately manipulated from the first by the CIA – and that this programme is ongoing.

We trace the inspiration for the conspiracy back to the ideology of certain extreme right–wing occult movements of the 19th and 20th centuries.

We conclude that the conspirators are deliberately harnessing the most profound and cherished beliefs of today's society – from fundamentalist Christianity and the 'message' of ancient civilisations to the alien abduction scenario – to create a new, more widely acceptable religion for the post–Millennial West. We reveal that, underlying the apparently acceptable tenets of this religion is an insidious right–wing ideology., the true danger lurking inside the Trojan Horse of its New Age image.

However, even though the manipulators have abused and hijacked the ancient Egyptian mysteries for their own ends, that does not mean that there are no such mysteries.

We reveal the ground–breaking research that provides a plausible answer to the most enduring questions about the ancient Egyptians' achievements and beliefs – and, explosively, uncover the true nature of the gods themselves...

Just WHO IS Snake4699?

One BORED E/XD/T Lab Tech, I imagine ...

Today's Quickie IQ Test – Find the Pattern

2,4,6, ? (What's Next?!) Many say '8'.

Analysis:

$2 = 1 * 2$, $4 = 2 * 2$, $6 = 2 * 3$, $3 * 3 = 9$ – see Rule 1

$2 = 0 + 2$, $4 = 2 + 2$, $6 = 2 + 4$, $4 + 4 = 8$ – see Rule 2

Rule 1: Increase the least – or right if both are equal – factor by one unit.

Rule 2: Increase the least – or right if both are equal – term by two units.

I prefe Rule 1; one unit is prior to two units; factorization is more primal than summation, when mystery is involved ...

I like 2,4,6,9 MORE than 2.4.6.8,
and I got NEWS for YOU: SO do They!

"The Way of the Snake is NOT the Way of Earthly MAN!"

REVELATION FOR THE DAY

Quetzalcoatl – A SECRET?:

Just ANOTHER "Feathered SNAKE"?!

Egg27043 now confides ...

"The 'Snake' part is Correct and represents a vehicle, roughly shaped like some snakes' (more at rattler) heads. An Interdimensional, Time Transfer vehicle.

"The 'Feathered' is Allegorical, embodying the IDEA of POWER of Flight, Inter/IntraUniversal Travel.

"WE WATCH YOU!"

for US to study THEM?

"Yes!"

Because THEY are studying US
