As can be seen Double-A
continues to project his fears, paranoia,
and conspiratorial theories onto me.

Unlike Double-A ( And Harry Hyena hanson),
when people express an opinion,
I don't get all bent out of shape,
follow them around,
and bushwhack them.
(Put the gun back under your pillow, Double-A!)

sci.physics: Re: This is depressing news...Google wants to 'host' Wikipedia...

Here's something for Double-A to think about.

1. Birds of the feather flock together.
2. Some "flocks" act in the collective interests of the flock.
3. Some "flocks" put gain above honor and morality.

This may be good, or it may be bad,
depending on how you look at it.

Putting honor and morality above personal and group gain,
enables me to sleep soundly and peacefully.
I suggest that Double-A consider this.
