What is it that you have against the ruling faction in Iran?
They're elected and are doing a more or less OK job. Does it piss you so much just because they charge your ilk "jaziyeh"? Hahhhahah :-)
I'm not even sure they do that anymore, although perhaps they should (Jews do not pay all the taxes that Moslems have to pay).

By the way. The ruling faction of Iran, presently, are the most educated Iranians. Those religious schools, you know, they're really universities. Old style universities with all sorts of subjects and fields to master.
