

sci.physics: Re: Relativity question

Re: Relativity question

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.physics/2005-03/9846.html>

---

From: Gregory L. Hansen (glhansen\_at\_steel.ucs.indiana.edu)

Date: 03/18/05

Date: Fri, 18 Mar 2005 16:12:52 +0000 (UTC)

In article <d1dh35$9t5$1@rainier.uits.indiana.edu>,

John Smith <no@way.net> wrote:

>If me moving away from the earth is the same thing as the earth moving away >from me why then does time slow down for me but not for earthlings? Many >thanks.

To you, the Earth clock will run slow. To the Earth, your clock will run slow.

--

"I fart for joy and I laugh more than if I had cast my old age, as a serpent does its skin." -- Aristophanes, Peace, 421 BC