

These ol' Science Books o' Mine

---

Source: <http://sci.tech--archive.net/Archive/sci.physics/2005-07/msg02153.html>

---

- From: "make.fsnet" <mail@xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx>
  - Date: 22 Jul 2005 06:01:27 -0700
-

PHD Books Dump

Hi, finally decided to offload my old course books, i'm sure they'll be more use to some of you younger members.

An Introduction to Quantum Physics – French & Taylor – Item number: 8320711244

Statistical Physics, F. Mandl – Second Edition – Item number: 6969589014

Vibrations and Waves by A.P.French – Item number: 6969589504

Introduction to Electrical Circuit Theory, G. Williams – Item number: 6969590767

First Steps in Numerical Analysis, Hosking/Turner/Joyce – Item number: 6969592174

Mathematical Methods in Physical Sciences, ML Boas – Item number: 6969593106

LASERS, P. W. Milonni & J. H. Eberly – Item number: 6969594122

Introduction to Elementary Particles – D. Griffiths – Item number: 8320712741

They're going for cheap on the UK ebay site, search for the item number. I'm not sending worldwide, just in the UK.

Hope these can be more use to you than my cupboard!

.

---

- Prev by Date: ***Re: why did the Apollo missions all land in the same area?***
- Next by Date: ***Re: Energy Buildup At Big Bang***
- Previous by thread: ***Difficult integral – who can help?***

These ol' Science Books o' Mine

- Next by thread: the newest testimony by dedanoe
- Index(es):
  - ◆ Date
  - ◆ Thread