Well, the solution to that is to fly away FTL and use the biggest lens, stop, and picture the past.

Canon makes some good lenses, I had a Canon camera once (seventies) E type I think.

This one is a bit expensive no? I mean for that money you can do a lot of things.. Buy a lot of ducks and ammo.

I remember also reading Donal Duck as a kid, he always had a temper too.

There also was this inventor in that, pople sometimes identify me with Gyro Gearloose....

So, now I forgot what I wanted to write, oh yes, GG inventend that black light bulb.

How to get the Duck:
