did they have a electric pool table ?

The cool thing is kids take 6 friends or more and they have the place to them selves .

evry kid on the ship piles in there for days at a time at sea wile they visit .

The neon bar is a 1930s art deco electric neon lounge ,, a few hours latter in yer rack youll still see lights in many colors when you close your eyes.

I hang in the skylounge or on the bridge .

The fun deck wears me out .

I just sleep in my penthouse and let gest tour it. Its 3 decks in places .

most pethouses 110 are on two decks.

I walk out my house onto the bridge .

my own restroom just inside the house.

my bridge bedroom down the stairs center 4 windows forward.

My port bedroom is any of six.

depening on the view .

smoking room next to bridgebed foward

Its invisible room as the wall pannel opens and I have a pound of weed in a feezer that is even harder to find then the room is.

No one has ever found the room.

Tell em the guns we left in port in tonga.

They cant find the smoking room and damb shure wount find the gun cabnet hiether.

They cant find all the service doors.

the residents dont know where some doors are and walk past them allot.

They are invisible towns under small towns and have allot of passageways on liners.

I keep 20 pounds of bud and 100 million cash

inmy smokers chamber.

My safe is in there ,,its a walkin .

Re: Free PCs, broadband, DVD recorders and videos.

my penthouse is better then james bond ever saw.
Oh he;s seen it im shure.
