Journal of Discourses, Vol.8, Pg.195 – Pg.196, Brigham Young, October 7, 1860:

In the beginning, after this earth was prepared for man, the Lord commenced his work upon what is now called the American continent, where the Garden of Eden was made. In the days of Noah, in the days of the floating of the ark, he took the people to another part of the earth: the earth was divided, and there he set up his kingdom. Did they receive his kingdom? No; they rejected it. Afterwards he called a man, and ordained him, and showed to him the inhabitants of the whole earth, and gave to him a promise that his offspring should be the people of God. He spoke to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and their children, as his covenant people. The Jews rejected Jesus Christ, who came to redeem the world. They cried—"Crucify him, crucify him! Let his blood be upon us and upon our children!" God has removed the kingdom from Jerusalem again to Zion, and here he will wind up the scene. Righteousness will go forth, and the wickedness upon the earth will be swept from it. Will I prophesy evil? No; let us prophesy good. But the justice and mercy of God must have their demands. Let everything have its place and its just due, both the good and the evil; and we will not curse the wicked, for they are already cursed; the wrath of the Almighty does not slumber upon their track; their condition is lamentable. They flourish like a green bay tree, and may so flourish for a few days; but they will become withered and dried and prepared to be cast into the fire, while the kingdom of God will stand; and if we do not remain faithful, others will take our places.

This is the kingdom of God, set up for the last time; and whosoever persecutes it persecutes the son of God and the Father who sent him. Here is the Priesthood (the keys of power and wisdom) that unlocks the storehouse of knowledge. These keys and this power the world know nothing of. It is marvellous to the world that the things that are known here—the very things that God reveals here—are often at once known by portions of this kingdom in other nations. To many it is marvellous that intelligence can be so rapidly communicated by means of the electro-magnetic telegraph, but our method of communication is from heaven.

[end of Scripture quote]

Yea, the Spirit of truth now testifieth of the above Scripture given through the mouth of the Apostle Brigham, the Lion of the Lord, even at 1:09 am.

Matthew 24:14–15 (Joseph Smith's Inspired Correction of the King James Version):

14 And again, this Gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached in all the world, for a witness unto all nations, and then shall the end come, or the destruction of the wicked;

15 And again shall the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, be fulfilled.

Communicated from heaven to the One Mighty and Strong (see Isaiah 28), who is Art Bulla the Eyewitness and Apostle of Jesus Christ sent to this generation of the last days, and to his Apostle also through the medium of anisotropic or non-uniform aether (for there is no such thing as truly empty space or vacuum — how do you demonstrate nothing or non-existence, I ask?) pervading all of space, and from us to both scattered Israel and the world through the medium of the Internet, muy rapidamente. You can be sure that there'll be no "communication breakdown" in these the last days. If you pray to the Father in true faith with a sincere heart, He will give you His Spirit also, that your hearts and minds may be penetrated by His Light to receive the testimony of Jesus and that these postings are valid and authorized of Christ. Please read and think about these things in sobriety of mind, you may be strong and able to resist the devil's promptings to scorn and mock. I have beheld devils, fallen spirits all. They do exist and angrily roam about with no glory seeking to possess bodies, for they possess no beauty when beheld as they really are, in their awful condition of misery and hate and envy. And no tabernacles of their own to house their spirits.

Josephus (Preface to Antiquities of the Jews):

.... those that have a mind to know the reasons of everything, may find here a very curious philosophical theory, which I now indeed shall wave the explanation of; but if God afford me time for it, I will set about writing it after I have finished the present work.

Re: When were the Land Masses Separated?

Arisal of One Mighty and Strong, ordained a Priest after the Order of Melchizedec foretold in scripture, giving from the Lord his words which he, the Lord, did speak in that day through the mouths of Isaiah, Daniel and others. ... Reuniting of land masses separated by the Atlantic, as before the flood, in the beginning. ... Received May 16, 1982.

38 And it is in the end, yea, even after that which is the Millenium, which is even now upon you, that I the Father shall cause the two land masses which are divided by that which is known as the Atlantic to run together again that the earth may be no more divided, as before the flood.

39 And thus shall all be restored as in the beginning, when there was one earth which dried before me in the beginning thereof.

40 For I the Father did cause the waters that they should recede from off the land, and behold it was one land.

41 And as it was in the beginning, even so shall it be again, according to the restitution of all things as spoken of by the mouths of my servants the Prophets of Israel, but not until the nations are tried.

42 And then the end shall come, that the earth shall receive a new heaven and a new earth, for it shall die and be resurrected and shall become even a Urim and Thummim unto those who shall inherit it forever, even near unto my throne.

Revelations of Jesus Christ 11:38–42 (received by Art Bulla, the Apostle of Jesus Christ in these the last days)

Art Bulla (Teachings of the One Mighty and Strong, #10):

And the Lord, in his mercy, sent Josephus unto them after the death of James, still to plead with them in the energy of his soul for their salvation. And these things the Spirit maketh manifest, for the Spirit speaketh of things which are past, as well as things which are present, and those things which are to come, which are true.

dispersion of the nations to their several countries; for Peleg among the Hebrews signifies division.

The Spirit of truth testified to me of the above Josephus quote several years ago, concerning that fabled division into nations at the Tower of Babel, not the division of the earth which had already come to pass at the time of the Global Deluge, even by the power and might of YHVH, at the time of Peleg, a son of the Patriarch Heber, after whom the children of Israel are also called. This portion of Josephus I know without a shadow of doubt has remained intact through the centuries, no matter what a Thomas Paine and his ilk may say, because of three witnesses: 1. The Holy Ghost testified of it to me several years ago while perusing it. 2. The quoted RJC 11:38, received by the Prophet Art Bulla, about which I also have known for several years. 3. The Brigham Young quote found by Nancy who posted it in derision, and several hours ago I perused it for the first time, and a few minutes earlier at 1:09 am, as I was winding up this post (ended up writing and pasting more, unable to restrain myself), the Spirit of truth witnessed of Brigham's words to me. The surviving Genesis account concerning this matter is incorrect because of "the interpolations of men" and/or errors by scribes while copying the manuscripts.

3 ... my servant Melchizedec, of whom there is much to be said.

4 And because of the interpolations of men, this is not had among the Gentiles, for behold it is his Priesthood which is without beginning of days nor end of years, saith the Lord, for he wast a man created in mine own image, and his Father after the flesh was my servant Noah, saith the Lord.

5 For it was that Shem is an High Priest ordained unto mine Order under the hands of the Fathers, yea even before the flood wast he ordained, and because of the interpolations of men, the Gentiles stumble upon this point of my doctrine, which was plain and precious unto the understanding of men in that day as it was taught unto the Church by mine ancient Apostles and Prophets, even Paul and others, saith the Lord God.

6 And the Gentiles also stumble upon other points of my doctrine, and they shall drink damnation unto their souls if they turn not away from their false teachers whom I the Lord God have not called and who are not of me.

Revelations of Jesus Christ 5:3–6 (received in Feb. 1981 by Art Bulla, the Apostle of Jesus Christ in these the last days)

161 And the height and depth of the suffering of them who deny the Holy Ghost no man knoweth save he shall be made a partaker thereof, for it doth require millenia for the spirit to die and be ground back down to its native element from which it was begotten, and this by the devil and his angels who are mighty to the destruction of men, and they are without hope having crucified mine Only Begotten unto themselves afresh.

Re: When were the Land Masses Separated?

162 And this fate cometh upon all of this generation who receive not my gospel, whether it be Billy Graham, or the Pope, saith the Lord, for they were given much, and where much is given much also is required, even obedience to mine anointed and diligence in keeping his commandments which I the Lord shall give him.

165 And as respecting that theory concerning the origin of man upon the earth in the which he is said to have sprung from orders that are called lower, behold, it is false and cometh from that Evil One who goeth up and down in the earth blinding the hearts of the children of men, in the which they raise their heads in wickedness before me, and deny the Holy Ghost and the Creator that made them.

166 Thus they become devils forever and ever, saith the Lord, and suffer the wrath of the Lord in eternity and are cast into that lake of fire, and their worm dieth not but they are consumed.

167 And the common man and woman is not guiltless before me in these things, saith the Lord, for in their sloth they have allowed themselves to be deceived, even in these things and by false religions.

Revelations of Jesus Christ 3:161–162,165–167

Thomas Paine (The Age of Reason):

I therefore pass on to an examination of the books called the Old and New Testament.

These books, beginning with Genesis and ending with Revelation (which, by the by, is a book of riddles that requires a revelation to explain it), are, we are told, the word of God. It is, therefore, proper for us to know who told us so, that we may know what credit to give to the report. The answer to this question is, that nobody can tell, except that we tell one another so. The case, however, historically appears to be as follows:

When the Church Mythologists established their system, they collected all the writings they could find, and managed them as they pleased. It is a matter altogether of uncertainty to us whether such of the writings as now appear under the name of the Old and New Testament are in the same state in which those collectors say they found them, or whether they added, altered, abridged, or dressed them up.

Journal of Discourses, Vol.4, Pg.203, Brigham Young, February 1, 1857:

All is doubtful, except what comes from the Almighty in His revelations to His people.

8 Wherefore murmur ye, because that ye shall receive more of my word? Know ye not that the testimony of two nations is a witness unto you that I am God, that I remember one nation like unto another? Wherefore, I speak the same words unto one nation like unto another. And when the two nations shall run together the testimony of the two nations shall run together also.

9 And I do this that I may prove unto many that I am the same yesterday, today, and forever; and that I speak forth my words according to mine own pleasure. And because that I have spoken one word ye need not suppose that I cannot speak another; for my work is not yet finished; neither shall it be until the end of man, neither from that time henceforth and forever.

10 Wherefore, because that ye have a Bible ye need not suppose that it contains all my words; neither need ye suppose that I have not caused more to be written.

11 For I command all men, both in the east and in the west, and in the north, and in the south, and in the islands of the sea, that they shall write the words which I speak unto them; for out of the books which shall be written I will judge the world, every man according to their works, according to that which is written.

12 For behold, I shall speak unto the Jews and they shall write it; and I shall also speak unto the Nephites and they shall write it; and I shall also speak unto the other tribes of the house of Israel, which I have led away, and they shall write it; and I shall also speak unto all nations of the earth and they shall write it.

13 And it shall come to pass that the Jews shall have the words of the Nephites, and the Nephites shall have the words of the Jews; and the Nephites and the Jews shall have the words of the lost tribes of Israel; and the lost tribes of Israel shall have the words of the Nephites and the Jews.

14 And it shall come to pass that my people, which are of the house of Israel, shall be gathered home unto the lands of their possessions; and my word also shall be gathered in one. And I will show unto them that fight against my word and against my people, who are of the house of Israel, that I am God, and that I covenanted with Abraham that I would remember his seed forever.

(Book of Mormon | 2 Nephi 29:8 – 14)

15 ¶ The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

16 Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and [for] all the house of Israel his companions:

17 And join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand.

1 Verily, thus saith the Lord unto you concerning the Apocrypha? There are many things contained therein that are true, and it is mostly translated correctly;

2 There are many things contained therein that are not true, which are interpolations by the hands of men.

3 Verily, I say unto you, that it is not needful that the Apocrypha should be translated.

4 Therefore, whoso readeth it, let him understand, for the Spirit manifesteth truth;

5 And whoso is enlightened by the Spirit shall obtain benefit therefrom;

6 And whoso receiveth not by the Spirit, cannot be benefited. Therefore it is not needful that it should be translated. Amen.

(Doctrine and Covenants | Section 91:1 – 6)

5 And by the power of the Holy Ghost ye may know the truth of all things.

(Book of Mormon | Moroni 10:5)

Lucifer's original sin was pride, or more precisely, hubris.

18 Pride [goeth] before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

(Old Testament | Proverbs 16:18)

"knit yourselves together in lowliness of mind. For God resisteth the proud and giveth grace to the humble. Submit yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you, when the time is come. Cast all your care to him: for he careth for you. Be sober and watch, for your adversary the devil as a roaring lion walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: whom resist steadfast in the faith, remembering that ye do but fulfil the same afflictions which are appointed to your brethren that are in the world. The God of all grace, which called you unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, shall his own self after ye have suffered a little affliction make you perfect: shall settle strength and establish you. To him be glory and dominion for ever, and while the world endureth. Amen."

1 Peter 5:5–11 (1534 Tyndale translation)

"He put forth a similitude to the guests, when he marked how they pressed to the highest rooms, and said unto them: When thou art bidden to a wedding of any man, sit not down in the highest room, lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him, and he that bade both him and thee, come and say to thee: give this man room, and thou then begin with shame to take the lowest room. But rather when thou art bidden, go and sit in the lowest room, that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee: friend sit up higher. Then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee. For whosoever exalteth himself, shall be brought low. And he that humbleth himself, shall be exalted."

Luke 14:7–11 (1534 Tyndale translation)

This was the great error of Lucifer in that Pre–Existence in the Celestial Kingdom. The wicked in the flesh, professing God or not, do err likewise in judgment. The Father granteth not His Spirit unto them that are proud and calculating in their hearts.

"Wherefore if thine eye be single, all thy body shall be full of light."
Matthew 6:22 (1534 Tyndale translation)

64 Whatsoever ye ask the Father in my name it shall be given unto you, that is expedient for you;

65 And if ye ask anything that is not expedient for you, it shall turn unto your condemnation.

66 Behold, that which you hear is as the voice of one crying in the wilderness?in the wilderness, because you cannot see him?my voice, because my voice is Spirit; my Spirit is truth; truth abideth and hath no end; and if it be in you it shall abound.

67 And if your eye be single to my glory, your whole bodies shall be filled with light, and there shall be no darkness in you; and that body which is filled with light comprehendeth all things.

68 Therefore, sanctify yourselves that your minds become single to God, and the days will come that you shall see him; for he will unveil his face unto you, and it shall be in his own time, and in his own way, and according to his own will.

69 Remember the great and last promise which I have made unto you; cast away your idle thoughts and your excess of laughter far from you.

(Doctrine and Covenants | Section 88:64 – 69)

"The light of thy body is the eye. Therefore when thine eye is single: then is all thy body full of light. But if thine eye be evil: then shall thy body also be full of darkness. Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee, be not darkness. For if all thy body shall be light, having no part dark: then shall all be full of light, even as when a candle doth light thee with his brightness."
Luke 11:34–36 (1534 Tyndale translation)

"ye dearly beloved, edify yourselves in your most holy faith, praying in the holy ghost, and keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, unto eternal life."
Jude 20–21 (1534 Tyndale translation)

9 And let them journey from thence preaching the word by the way, saying none other things than that which the prophets and apostles have written, and that which is taught them by the Comforter through the prayer of faith.

(Doctrine and Covenants | Section 52:9)

17 Verily I say unto you, he that is ordained of me and sent forth to preach the word of truth by the Comforter, in the Spirit of truth, doth he preach it by the Spirit of truth or some other way?

18 And if it be by some other way it is not of God.

19 And again, he that receiveth the word of truth, doth he receive it by the Spirit of truth or some other way?

20 If it be some other way it is not of God.

21 Therefore, why is it that ye cannot understand and know, that he that receiveth the word by the Spirit of truth receiveth it as it is preached by the Spirit of truth?

22 Wherefore, he that preacheth and he that receiveth, understand one another, and both are edified and rejoice together.

23 And that which doth not edify is not of God, and is darkness.

24 That which is of God is light; and he that receiveth light, and continueth in God, receiveth more light; and that light groweth brighter and brighter until the perfect day.

(Doctrine and Covenants | Section 50:17 – 24)

7 Even so, I am the same, yesterday, today, and forever and bestow upon whom I will powers and authorities to act in my name, saith the Lord God of the Brother of Jared, whom the world in its wisdom knoweth not of, for this man, saith the Lord, I did show myself unto him and did touch with my finger the stones which he did molten, that he and his brethren might have light while it was that they were in boats which they had made in order that they might cross the great deep, and that they might people this land after the waters had receded off the face thereof after that mighty flood which I the Lord did cause that it should cover the inhabitants thereof.

September 28, 1938. ... Brother Peay also told of hearing Joshua Jones of Provo tell of hearing Brigham Young say, "The time will come when this people are led onto the very brink of apostasy." Jones made an entry of it in his Journal. The speech was made in the Old Bowery at Provo. Learned through Lorin C. Woolley, that his father, John W. Woolley, attended the above meeting, and upon arriving home at Centerville he told Lorin and his mother of the incident. He related it thusly: "President Young, being filled with the Holy Ghost, said, 'The time will come when this people will be led onto the very brink of hell by their leaders, then the one mighty and strong will come to set the house of God in order.'"

6 Yea, thus saith the still small voice, which whispereth through and pierceth all things, and often times it maketh my bones to quake while it maketh manifest, saying:

7 And it shall come to pass that I, the Lord God, will send one mighty and strong, holding the scepter of power in his hand, clothed with light for a covering, whose mouth shall utter words, eternal words; while his bowels shall be a fountain of truth, to set in order the house of God, and to arrange by lot the inheritances of the saints whose names are found, and the names of their fathers, and of their children, enrolled in the book of the law of God;

1 Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty [is] a fading flower, which [are] on the head of the fat valleys of them that are overcome with wine!

2 Behold, the Lord hath a mighty and strong one, [which] as a tempest of hail [and] a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand.

3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden under feet:

4 And the glorious beauty, which [is] on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, [and] as the hasty fruit before the summer; which [when] he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he eateth it up.

11 For by this name was he Adam, known among the inhabitants of the earth which had multiplied exceedingly upon the face thereof.

12 For they knew of him that he was the first man, and his wife Eve, and because the hairs of his head were an exceeding and brilliant white, and he being bowed down with age, he did call together them that were righteous among his posterity to exhort them in the ways of the Gods, and did bless them and being filled with the Holy Ghost, also rose up and did predict whatsoever should befall his posterity unto the latest generation.

13 And he being filled with years, did plead and exhort his children that they should follow the ways of righteousness that their days should be prolonged in the land.

14 And the land was beautiful and had an abundance of fig and fruit, though not in as great abundance as that before the fall.

15 And he did exhort them who were his posterity with all the feeling of tender regard and anxiety for the welfare of their souls as that of a parent for his child.

Journal of Discourses, Vol.1, Pg.51, Brigham Young, April 9, 1852:

My next sermon will be to both Saint and sinner. ... Now hear it, O inhabitants of the earth, Jew and Gentile, Saint and sinner! When our father Adam came into the garden of Eden, he came into it with a celestial body, and brought Eve, one of his wives, with him. He helped to make and organize this world. He is MICHAEL, the Archangel, the ANCIENT OF DAYS! ... Every man upon the earth, professing Christians or non-professing, must hear it, and will know it sooner or later. They came here, organized the raw material, and arranged in their order the herbs of the field, the trees, the apple, the peach, the plum, the pear, and every other fruit that is desirable and good for man; the seed was brought from another sphere, and planted in this earth. The thistle, and thorn, the brier, and the obnoxious weed did not appear until after the earth was cursed. ... Now, let all who may hear these doctrines, pause before they make light of them, or treat them with indifference, for they will prove their salvation or damnation. .... Treasure up these things in your hearts. In the Bible, you have read the things I have told you to-night; but you have not known what you did read.

110 And have I not also revealed these things unto my servant Art Bulla, who is mine anointed, even at this time, saith the Lord?

111 Even so, judge ye O man, who art full of instability before me, whether these things are not true.

112 And if ye believe them not after I have made them plain unto thee, even at this time, saith the Lord, Ye O ye Gentiles shall have blasphemed against the Holy Ghost and shall be destroyed both body and soul in that hell spoken of and shall be thus cut off.

113 And if ye pray unto me, I the Lord shall also reveal it unto thee O man, that ye partake with me, even Eloheim, of the eternal lives, for are we not one God unto thee O man?

114 And were these things not also taught unto the people at that time by Moses, and would to God he could have revealed unto them all things, but they would not in the hardness of their hearts and blindness of their minds, for which thing they perished in the wilderness.

115 And He, is the Ancient of Days, even Father Adam, and his Kingdom is an everlasting Kingdom, and he shall rule over his posterity forever and ever, and behold He is also the Father of Jesus Christ in the flesh, for He, even He did beget Him in that day, saith the Lord, in the which he left Enoch and Zion which had been taken up off the earth, and did come down, translated, to beget His Only Begotten Son in the flesh.

116 And behold, this hath been done on other worlds which have been created by the Power of the Most High and organized from the chaotic element.

Revelations of Jesus Christ 5:110–116

Wisdom of Solomon 11:17 (1611 King James Apocrypha):

For thy Almighty hand that made the world of matter without form, ...

Hebrews 11:3 (1534 Tyndale translation):

Through faith we understand ... that things which are seen, were made of things which are not seen.

Maurice Allais, 1988 Nobel Prize Winner in Economics (About the Aether Concept, 2003):

Atoms, particles, photons are but (local) singularities of the aether which remain to be explained by differential equations.

James Clerk Maxwell (1878 Encyclopaedia Britannica):

Whatever difficulties we may have in forming a consistent idea of the constitution of the aether, there can be no doubt that the interplanetary and interstellar spaces are occupied by a material substance of body.

Eternal Duration of Matter

Speaking of eternal duration of matter, I said: There is no such thing as immaterial matter. All spirit is matter, but is more fine or pure, and can only be discerned by purer eyes. We cannot see it, but when our bodies are purified, we shall see that it is all matter. (May 17, 1843.) DHC 5:392–3.

Maurice Allais, 1988 Nobel Prize Winner in Economics (About the Aether Concept, 2003):

Nature doesn't leave any room to chance and all is determined by cause and effect relationships. What's called hazard is nothing but a representation of our ignorance. But the permanent nature of the statistical laws shows the existence of a hidden order.

James Clerk Maxwell, Theory of Heat (1871):

Admitting heat to be a form of energy, the second law asserts that it is impossible, by the unaided action of natural processes, to transform any part of the heat of a body into mechanical work, except by allowing heat to pass from that body into another at a lower temperature.

Isaac Newton (The Principia):

Blind metaphysical necessity, which is certainly the same always and everywhere, could produce no variety of things. All that diversity of natural things which we find suited to different times and places could arise from nothing but the ideas and will of a Being necessarily existing.

As confirmed to me by the Holy Ghost on Monday morning this week, the present multiplicity of species of the original creatures preserved by Father Noah and his family from that Global Deluge is the work of the Almighty God of heaven and earth after the Deluge, according to the pattern recounted in Genesis 3:14, which occurred long before the Deluge. This revelation of Jesus Christ I had originally received in 2001, during a prayer.

14 And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life:

(Old Testament | Genesis 3:14)

Evolution by any other appellation is just as false, be it called Spencerism or Darwinism or Big Bang or any other. It was not by any "unaided" process of Evolution that the Eloheim had organized the Universe and all entities therein, for the self-organization of any thing is an impossibility. Statistically speaking, improbable; i.e., approaching zero. If neither God nor man actively interferes, the second law is the only operating principle pertaining to the longevity of any organized system, living or non-living. If the Supreme Being were not above the second law of thermodynamics, He would be powerless to resurrect the dead.

"See that ye gather you not treasure upon the earth, where rust and moths corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal. But gather ye treasure together in heaven, where neither rust nor moths corrupt, and where thieves neither break up nor yet steal."
Matthew 6:19–20 (1534 Tyndale translation)

SECTION 14.

HOW THE WORLD HAS BEEN DECEIVED

EPISTLE refuting theory of evolution using mathematical and statistical analysis. Origin of man and when delineated upon earth. Transplantation of perfect man and woman into a garden from another planet. Occurring six thousand years ago. Earth organized from materials which already existed, hence fossilized strata. Spirits cast out delight in deception of mankind by these things (evolution). Received May, 1982, Greensboro, N.C.

[rest of RJC Section 14 skipped for brevity of this post]

So that, if not one molecule can self organize, how can even the simplest bacteria come into existence by natural processes (i.e., not involving the Supreme Creator), much less more complex organisms? And among organisms that have been observed by mankind, no change in their genetic attributes has ever been detected. Evolution is a theory and an entirely false one.

91 For true science and true religion, are they not the same things, O man?

Revelations of Jesus Christ 3:91

Survival of the meekest, not survival of the fittest, which is by the "unaided action" of natural selection.

"Brethren look on your calling, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many of high degree are called: but God hath chosen the foolish things of the world, to confound the wise. And God hath chosen the weak things of the world, to confound things which are mighty. And vile things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea and things of no reputation, for to bring to nought things of reputation, that no flesh should rejoice in his presence. And unto him pertain ye, in Christ Jesus, which of God is made unto us wisdom, and also righteousness, and sanctifying and redemption. That according as it is written: he which rejoiceth, should rejoice in the Lord."

1 Corinthians 1:26–31 (1534 Tyndale translation)

Re: When were the Land Masses Separated?

Oscar Wilde (The Picture of Dorian Gray):

I shall grow old, and horrible, and dreadful. But this picture will remain always young. It will never be older than this particular day of June. ...
If it were only the other way! If it were I who was to be always young, and the picture that was to grow old! For that?for that?I would give everything!
Yes, there is nothing in the whole world I would not give! I would give my soul for that!

27 And if men come unto me I will show unto them their weakness. I give unto men weakness that they may be humble; and my grace is sufficient for all men that humble themselves before me; for if they humble themselves before me, and have faith in me, then will I make weak things become strong unto them.

28 Behold, I will show unto the Gentiles their weakness, and I will show unto them that faith, hope and charity bringeth unto me?the fountain of all righteousness.

(Book of Mormon | Ether 12:27 – 28)

To put simply, it is "discriminative destruction" of the wicked (quoted dark sarcasm was coined by Clerk Maxwell) in these the last days by the Lord's justice when He returns as a thief in the night with ten thousands of His resurrected saints and translated saints, if the inhabitants of the earth will not repent in spite of the evidences given and testimonies borne them. Therefore be careful to not blaspheme against these publishings, especially if you understand them.

James Clerk Maxwell:

I believe, with the Westminster Divines and their predecessors ad Infinitum, that "Man's chief end is to glorify God and to enjoy him for ever".

1 HEARKEN, O ye Gentiles, and hear the words of Jesus Christ, the Son of the living God, which he hath commanded me that I should speak concerning you, for, behold he commandeth me that I should write, saying:

2 Turn, all ye Gentiles, from your wicked ways; and repent of your evil doings, of your lyings and deceivings, and of your whoredoms, and of your secret abominations, and your idolatries, and of your murders, and your priestcrafts, and your envyings, and your strifes, and from all your wickedness and abominations, and come unto me, and be baptized in my name, that ye may receive a remission of your sins, and be filled with the Holy Ghost, that ye may be numbered with my people who are of the house of Israel.

(Book of Mormon | 3 Nephi 30:1 – 2)
