"Eric Gisse" makes a good point when he points out that Jews have come into conflict with all of their neighbors throughout history, and that their neighbors became "anti-Semitic", and that most of the folks on the planet today are "anti-Semitic".

The scientific question is "Why were so many folks in the past "anti-Semitic", and why are so many folks today "anti-Semitic".

Are non-Jews flawed in some way, or is there something about Jews that makes folks "anti-Semitic
