

Re: news flash.....mosley bleeds from O-ring.

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.space.history/2004-06/1718.html>

From: LaDonna Wyss (hpywife927_at_yahoo.com)

Date: 06/10/04

Date: 9 Jun 2004 19:13:01 -0700

Dale <drc@oz.net> wrote in message news:<07sec0hrr8seqrrOut0gjtiv4kasiijnm6@4ax.com>...

> >hpywife927@yahoo.com (LaDonna Wyss) wrote:

>

> >Do you not understand how and why men give their lives for this > >country? Do you not understand these men and women are fighting on > >your behalf? Do you not know any veterans? Do you feel no gratitude > >toward them for their service? What is it you think these men and > >women do????

> >Sorry, but I find this to be an amazing question on your part. Do you > >honestly need me to explain it to you?

>

> So, if a civilian agency, such as NASA, decides to enter a car in the > Indy 500, and the driver happens to be in the military, and he/she dies, > that death was for my freedom? But if the same car crashes with a civilian > driver, it's just a tragic accident in a sporting event?

>

> You needn't explain to me the great debt we owe to our armed services, > LaDonna. I was mainly just wondering how your mind works. Thanks.

>

> Dale

Oh for crying out loud. Now Gus, Ed, and Roger were not performing their duties as members of the military; they were rehearsing for the Daytona 500. How silly of me.