I found this in the thread about Rhonda and my emails.

"I'm with Rhonda. "Eh?"

Why in the world do we care about your private emails, unless of course you're going to retract that accusation about Gus.

LaDonna"

I don't know who (or, more to the point, what) you are, but I don't think I've ever made any accusations about Gus Grissom. Quite the contrary.

As for the email requests, I did that because someone mentioned in a post that I had suggested that they had threatened to shoot me. I don't recall making that statement, but may have said something along the lines of "it's not like he's threatened to shoot me" or similar (not how easy it would be to simply remove the "it's not like" part).

See, Rhonda, like you coincidentally, has the unfortunate habit of sending snippets of emails to people. These snippets also contain her interpretations of the _entire_ email and the reader can be mistaken that that is the context of the email. I intend to show that is not necessarily accurate. So, as to private emails, to clear up some of the... 'misconceptions' in this group, I made the offer an open one as I don't know who Rhonda shared the snippets of my emails with.

Now, as you you, Ms Google, you are killfiled in all your incarnations, including mention of your name(s) in the subject line. You have had many in the short time you have been here.
