W's arrogance that it can't happen here caused it. The magnitude of the attacks and that three out of four planes found their mark, and the one that failed having nothing to do with W indicates they were not ready at all. Couple that with the rallying around him that he got in the aftermath, and the fact that that was used to execute a 1998 PNAC agenda to attack Iraq; W deserves to be sent back to Texas via the vote of the American People this fall.
