

Re: Mountains Rush and Moore

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.space.history/2004-08/1453.html>

From: David M. Palmer (dmpalmer_at_email.com)

Date: 08/21/04

Date: Sat, 21 Aug 2004 09:48:28 -0600

In article <aranders-2108040110370001@192.168.1.101>, Alan Anderson <aranders@insightbb.com> wrote:

> I'm in favor of tossing out income taxes entirely, myself. I believe that > the most appropriate basis for taxation is wealth, not cash flow. Don't > *tax me based on what I earn or spend. Tax me based on what I own.*

Yeah, I spend all my income on hookers, drugs, and fast cars that I tend to crash within a year. Why should I be taxed the same as someone who wastes their money buying a house and saving for retirement?

--

David M. Palmer dmpalmer@email.com (formerly @clark.net, @ematic.com)