

Re: IEEE SPECTRUM magazine: Apollo 13, We Have a Solution

Source: <http://sci.tech-archive.net/Archive/sci.space.history/2005-04/msg00829.html>

- From: "Stuf4" <tdadamemd-spamblock-@xxxxxxxxxx>
 - Date: 25 Apr 2005 19:01:16 -0700
-

>>From Sy Liebergot:

> > <http://www.spectrum.ieee.org/WEBONLY/wonews/apr05/0405napola.html>

- > Jim O is a dear and respected friend and I appreciate him posting the
- > IEEE Spectrum story. It's one of the rare times that the LM Flight
- > Controllers have some of their stories told. IMHO I believe Stephen
- > Cass did a wonderful job squeezing this story down to the imposed
- 3,000
- > word limit.

I would be very interested to hear how you feel about that article's repeated use of the word "explosion".

I have a hunch that Balok would have objected.

~ CT

.

- Follow-Ups:

- ◆ Re: IEEE SPECTRUM magazine: Apollo 13, We Have a Solution
◇ From: Sy Liebergot

- References:

- ◆ IEEE SPECTRUM magazine: Apollo 13, We Have a Solution
◇ From: Jim Oberg
- ◆ Re: IEEE SPECTRUM magazine: Apollo 13, We Have a Solution
◇ From: Sy Liebergot

- Prev by Date: Smells of Natures
- Next by Date: Re: A Random Paper on Software
- Previous by thread: Re: IEEE SPECTRUM magazine: Apollo 13, We Have a Solution
- Next by thread: Re: IEEE SPECTRUM magazine: Apollo 13, We Have a Solution
- Index(es):

Re: IEEE SPECTRUM magazine: Apollo 13, We Have a Solution

- ◆ Date
- ◆ Thread