Boy, this is great .sig material. Could you send me some tips on what meds not to take to come up with stuff like this?

whether it
swallows, then tries to kiss you afterwards.

You have to admit though, whatever it is, Brad has it down to an art form. It's like it's being generated by some sort of a computer that puts words together in a strange type of thesaurus based sentence generating program.

And the sentences seem even more run-on than mine...which I find strangely reassuring in an odd way- I still haven't completely wiggled out.
