On Mon, 28 Aug 2006 16:24:17 –0400, in a place far, far away, "Scott Hedrick" <dinehnmKILLSPAM@xxxxxxxxxx> made the phosphor on my monitor glow in such a way as to indicate that:

Israel can't win, because their opponents have no problems with using their fellow Muslims as shields and even targets. Israel either tolerates the murder of their citizens, or inadvertently kills "innocents" in the process of defending themselves. Frankly, Israel should *stop* the soft-shoe approach and do what it takes. If they are going to be damned by the world for protecting themselves anyway, they might as well be damned for a reason. If the missiles are coming out of southern Lebanon, then Israel should remove every structure in southern Lebanon that could hide a missile or anything else that could be used by a terrorist.

Golda Meir said that Israelis don't hate the Arabs for killing Israelie children. They hate them for forcing them to kill Arab children. Find the moral equivalence in that.
