I present you : 'The Stick'.
Bible prophecy realized.

Oh another one of those "Bush licked all the sugar off my lollipop"
cry babies huh?

No, I'm one of those America is broke rationalists :

Agreed. So let's end all the welfare programs except for those who can contribute to society, deport 12 million Mexicans, and get rid of ALL pork and "earmarks".

So you seem to have a problem with basic arithmetic as well.

Hint : Look at the military budget fraction.

And finally, I'm one of those rocket science shouldn't be this fucking
stupid and expensive rationalists :

You'll get no argument from me there. How many billions and how many years is going to take to do something not even as ambitious as what

Re: NASA Astronauts Are Very Afraid.

NASA was planning back in the 60s? Absolutely disgusts me.

Yet like a good little American fascist, you see nothing, hear nothing, say nothing and know nothing. Reminds me of another regime, except they had a lot better rocket scientists than the bible college educated asswipes we have working and flying for NASA nowadays.

I see. So since I'm not pissing and moaning about how evil George Bush is and wringing my hands like a good little liberal I'm a fascist? How 'bout you do something usefulel and go fuck yourself.
