Space.com has been roundly criticized here before,

Lou (spit!) Dobbs era.

Was there any other era? It was founded by Lou Dobbs...

Present day. He's gone now, since (what, 2005?) when "Imaginova" took over.

Lou Dobbs returned to to his old job at CNN and gave up his CEO position at space.com in 2001. Imaginova didn't "take over"— space.com (inc.) simply changed its name in 2004. Dobbs is still a minority shareholder and has a seat on the board of directors.

He used to be a local reporter in Seattle on KING TV, before he became a big shot. Never particularly cared for the guy.
