I assume this has something to do with her poll numbers in Texas. :-D

...Here's a really funny one: amongst the Lesbian community here in CenTex, her numbers aren't as high on the approval rating scale as she once thought. Apparently she's lost a few pink triangle points because she's obviously keeping Slick Willie around as a "whipped puppy trophy" rather than dumping him back when he got caught with that Oompa–Loompa in a blue dress. They may vote for her simply out of voting for their own kind, but there's no longer a guarantee that will happen. It could turn the Dem vote here in favor of Obama.
